Glamour in Saint-Sulpice, Paris 6

Located in a lovely and well-maintained 1920s building in the 6^e arrondissement, this apartment has been meticulously renovated to harmonize with the period of the building using the highest quality materials and finishes. With its elegant architectural details, including the moldings, doors and marble gas fireplace in the living room, this apartment has a beautiful transitional feel that lends itself to many different decorating styles. The gracious 155 m² floor plan is conducive for comfortable living and entertaining. It includes an inviting living and dining room; a beautiful, fully-equipped kitchen; a separate laundry room; a marble powder room; a guest bedroom with its own bathroom and dressing room; and a very grand master bedroom with a luxurious bathroom and dressing room. Air conditioning and air filtration systems keep the apartment comfortable all year long.
